

POLICIES FOR SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America

Purposes:

1. To develop interest in family and consumer sciences, family and consumer sciences careers, and related occupations.
2. To give financial aid to worthy family and consumer sciences students who have been active in the Missouri Association Family, Career and Community Leaders of America.

Scholarship Plan:

The Missouri Association of FCCLA shall award scholarships annually to outstanding Missouri FCCLA members meeting specific scholarship criteria and planning to enroll in an accredited institution of higher education. Scholarships are awarded in the following categories -

- Family and Consumer Sciences Career Clusters Scholarships
- Outstanding FCCLA Leadership Scholarships

Family and Consumer Sciences Career Clusters Scholarships:

Scholarships are available for candidates planning to major in a two-year associate or four-year baccalaureate degree program in a family and consumer sciences career cluster area. Career cluster areas in family and consumer sciences are:

- Early childhood, education and services
- Food production and services
- Hospitality, tourism and recreation
- Housing, interiors and furnishings
- Textiles and apparel
- Family and consumer sciences education

Outstanding FCCLA Leadership Scholarships:

Scholarships are available for candidates who demonstrate outstanding leadership and participation in FCCLA programs and activities. Two-year associate and four-year baccalaureate degree awards are available. Candidates must be enrolled in an accredited college or university.

Scholarship Award Amounts:

Candidates planning to enroll in a two-year postsecondary program leading to an Associate's degree through an accredited college or university shall receive a $500 scholarship.

Candidates planning to enroll in a program leading to a bachelor's degree through an accredited college or university shall receive a $1000 scholarship.

The Missouri Educators of Family and Consumer Sciences (MoEFACS) will contribute $100 toward the FCCLA four-year scholarship recipient receiving the highest score, providing the recipient is majoring in Vocational Family and Consumer Sciences Education. If there are no FCCLA scholarship recipients majoring in Vocational Family and Consumer Sciences Education, the funds will remain in the MoEFACS treasury.

Number of Scholarships Awarded:

At least two scholarships will be awarded annually, one from each scholarship category. The amounts will be determined by the State Executive Council and will depend upon availability of funds and applications submitted. The Missouri State Executive Council shall adjust the number of scholarships according to the funds available.

Payment of Scholarship Funds:

Scholarship payments are made directly to the financial aid office of the selected college or university. Payments are sent in the month of August. Two-year scholarships are paid in two annual payments of $250 each. Four-year scholarships are paid in four annual payments of $250 each.

The $100 MoEFACS scholarship contribution will be made in one payment, the first year of the scholarship.

Scholarship Policies:

1. There is no limit to the number of scholarship applications submitted by a chapter.
2. Members may apply for one, but not both, Missouri FCCLA scholarships.
3. The award shall be paid as stipulated above when enrollment has been completed in the college as selected by the recipient, and a written notice has been received by the state advisor.
4. The scholarship committee shall be named by the state director of family and consumer sciences education and state advisor of Missouri FCCLA. The committee shall review the qualifications and name the recipients and alternates for each recipient.
5. If the recipient is unable to accept the award, notification must be made to the state advisor prior to opening of the fall semester. The award shall then be given to the first alternate.

Qualifications and Procedures for FCCLA Scholarship Applicants:

1. The completed Scholarship Application Blank and Grade Report Form are due in the state office postmarked by February 15. These should be mailed to Missouri FCCLA, Family and Consumer Sciences Education, PO Box 480, Jefferson City, Missouri, 65102-0480.
